AIB Speech Eliminations Set

Harbor District Chapter, American Institute of Banking will hold their chapter public speaking contest in the Elks Club, 4101 Willow St. Long Beach, February 23 at 7 p.m.

This contest is an elimination for the District public speaking contest to be held April 15 at the Plush Horse Inn in Redondo Beach which will be hosted by Harbor District Chapter. The winner of the District contest will participate in the National public speaking contest sponsored by the A. P. Giannini Educational Endowment to be held the first week in June in Seattle, Washington. First prize at this National contest is $500, second prize $300, third prize $100 plus all expenses paid.

EIGHT CONTESTANTS

Joy Decker, Chapter public speaking committee chairman, announced there will be eight contestants in the local contest each speaking on the topic "Economic Growth Without Inflation—its Nature and Significance." Judges will be composed of one professional man, one banker, and one educator.

Primary objectives of the speaking contest are to improve the practices, broaden the purposes and increase the usefulness of banking as an institution by stimulating research in the field of banking and economics; and to obtain a better public understanding of the relation of banking to other human activities and interests by stimulating public discussion of subjects related to banking.

Other members of the Chapter public speaking committee are John Alexiou, co-chairman, Bank of America, Los Angeles headquarters; Van Logan, Capitol National Bank, Compton; Bob Sherrett, Bank of America, Torrance; and Sibly Snead, Bank of America, Long Beach Main Office.

HILLSIDE PTA—Fire hazards in the home were demonstrated by Battalion Chief Gordon Northington of the Torrance Fire Department.

Richard Sylvester, safety chairman, said Chief Northington demonstrated the hazards of fire with common household items such as hair spray and lighter fluid.

Mrs. Ralph Palmer presented the honorary life membership award. Cub Scout Den 3 presented the color guard. Refreshments were served by the fourth, fifth and sixth grade mothers.

St. Andrew's Plans Active Days Ahead

Sunday sermon series at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, 1432 Engracia Ave., Torrance, will be entitled "Profiles of Faith." The Reverend Hugh Percy will begin the series with a sermon on "Fasting"—based on the writings and example of St. Paul. Morning services are held at 9:15 and 11 a.m.

Corporate communion for St. Anne's Guild will be at 7 a.m. Installation of officers of the Episcopal Church-women of St. Andrew's and Guild leaders will be at the 9:15 service.

On Tuesday a group of women of St. Andrew's will attend the Long Beach Convocation to be held at St. Francis' Episcopal Church, 2200 Via Rosa, Palos Verdes. Holy communion will be held at 10 a.m. Workshops in all church activities will follow. A sack lunch will be at noon and child care will be provided.

The Right Reverend Ivor Curtis, suffragan bishop of Los Angeles will confirm a class of some 52 young people and adults at 7:30 p.m. at St. Andrew's Church. A reception will be held following the service.

Local Residents to Appear In "Dark at the Top of the Stairs"

"The Dark at the Top of the Stairs" will be the next production at the Hampton Playhouse. After waiting for almost two years for the release of the amateur rights, permission was finally granted and the play will be the second one of the season.

Opening date is set for Friday, February 24 at Hampton's theater, 100 Wall St., Redondo.

El Long, who directed last year's season opener, "Orpheus Descending," undertakes the directing of this sensitive and delicate comedy-drama by William Inge.

In the lead roles of Cora and Rubin Flood are Betsy Mackenzie and Bill Burroughs, with Michael Bernard and Sue Wood playing their children, Conny and Reenie. Cleo Weinstein won the "acting plum" role of Cora's sister, Lottie, while her husband Morris is being played by Jake Jones.

In addition to the Flood children, there are three other important teen-age roles.
